6 days / 5 nights | Parents, children and generations travelling together

Discover London together through remarkable history, museums, river journeys and British food traditions. Thoughtfully chosen experiences and time to pause bring generations together, with accommodation and pace tailored to your family.

Accommodation is selected individually to suit your family's preferences, room arrangements and chosen investment in the journey.

Your programme

Family Discoveries

Day 1 · A welcome for every generation

Your arrival is carefully coordinated, with airport arrangements and accommodation selected around your family's needs. Settle in, unwind and enjoy the beginning of your London stay together.

Day 2 · London through curious eyes

Discover the city's museums, landmarks and river views through experiences chosen for your children's ages and interests. A Thames journey offers a fresh perspective on London's skyline and stories.

Day 3 · Flavours and shared discoveries

Explore British food traditions and the atmosphere of Borough Market, with room for discoveries that delight every generation. Shared dining and time together make the city feel personal.

Day 4 · Space to explore

A garden or outdoor cultural visit brings fresh air and a change of pace. The setting and timing are chosen around your family, balancing discovery with comfort and time to rest.

Day 5 · A journey shaped around you

Enjoy a final day of accompanied visits, shared dining or quieter moments, according to your agreed programme. Your concierge coordinates the details so your family can focus on the experience.

Day 6 · A seamless family departure

Your concierge coordinates the family's departure and agreed airport arrangements. Leave with the practical details taken care of and shared memories of your time in Britain.
