Arrive to a personal airport welcome and a seamless transfer to Wellington. A welcome dinner introduces the warmth and hospitality that shape the days ahead.

Day 2 / Wednesday · British flavours and afternoon tea

Discover Borough Market with Celia Brooks, tasting your way through its food traditions. Later, settle into the timeless ritual of afternoon tea, with space to savour the occasion.

Day 3 / Thursday · The splendour of St James's

Step into Spencer House's magnificent State Rooms on a proposed private tour, then explore the historic streets of St James's. A West End performance completes a day of art, architecture and theatre.

A proposed late-morning visit to Neal's Yard Dairy's maturation arches offers an intimate introduction to British cheese. A tasting light lunch with wine or soft drinks, London's festive lights and a farewell dinner make a memorable final day.
